

Members: I am so glad I can reach out to all of you. I was sitting here at my desk, checking the list, as you know we must do this more than once to make sure we don't miss anything.....

I see something called Facebook, that is quite popular amongst everyone and look what I found...An interesting Post from the wonderful

New Hampshire Veterans Home

“We've been asked by organizations how they can help our veterans. And our veterans have even asked us to share our wish list their family, friends and community connections who would like to look it over. Therefore, to accommodate their wishes - all for the benefit of our veterans, we invite you to look over our newly-updated wish list. for

www.nh.gov/veterans/support/documents/wish-list.pdf

Whether it's a personal greeting, written card or letter, gift of time volunteering with our heroes, or item purchased from our wish list, we appreciate all you do for our veterans! ❤️🇺🇸💙

#NHVH #NHVeteransHome #WishList
#spiritofgiving”

Listen up everyone, I think we need to help share this FACEBOOK POST as well to all in case they are looking for a special gift for the NHVH this Christmas. They take such wonderful care of their Veterans. All the wonderful activities, special treats that keep them smiling, so here goes....If you are looking for something special, big or little, unique gift that will benefit so many Veterans, just take a look at this.....

So glad you all think it is a great idea but remember if you have any questions, you must contact:

MAUREEN CAMPBELL
At the NHVH

Telephone: 603-527-4889

Email: maureen.p.campbell@nhvh.nh.gov

One more thing, don't forget to fill out the NHVH Form donation form. You can find it on the Department's website.

This the season to be merry and bright, but gifts like these are appreciated all thru the year...

Thank you!

Madeline Dreusicke, NHVH Representative